

Status of the first Icelandic vertical reference system

- Original network about 3000 km
- Levelling began in 1992
- Still ongoing
- Calculations of the current data started in 2009 in cooperation with FGI
- Levelling data and GPS/levelling data has been processed
- Still some gravity and definition work to be done